

MAINE ISLAND KAYAK OUTFITTERS

What to Bring: Half-Day & Day Trips

Choose gear that works for you. Your choice is part of your adventure. Cotton is comfortable, but very cold when wet. Air temperatures are generally in the 60s and 70s. Water temperatures range from the 50s to low 60s.

Clothing

Old sneakers, wet suit booties, or surf shoes that can get wet
Fleece jacket or wool sweater
Sun hat or visor
Shorts, preferably quick drying
T-shirt
Windbreaker or light jacket
Change of clothes for after kayaking

Personal

Water bottle & snacks
Sunglasses with strap (possibly floating)
Sunscreen, lip balm
Any specialized medications or needs

The following are optional and unnecessary, but you may want to consider:

Binoculars (small)
Waterproof camera*

*We strongly discourage bringing electronic devices (i-anything) that are not guaranteed waterproof.
